

Dear Student and Parents,

The Ensemble Theatre Community School (ETC) seeks to foster a spirit of creativity, cooperation, and commitment in its students. In keeping with these goals, ETC has established the following rules and policies regarding its students. We ask that you read these rules, sign the acknowledgements that follow them, and return a signed copy of this letter by June 15.

Set forth below are ETC's rules and policies regarding its students:

1. Students are expected to attend all classes and rehearsals.
2. Students are expected to accept any non-acting production duties assigned to them.
3. All students are expected to spend 1 hour and 15 minutes per day (approximately one class period) on assigned duties, such as meal preparation or clean-up.
4. Use of drugs or alcohol is forbidden, and such use will be grounds for expulsion from the program.
5. Cigarette smoking is prohibited. Any student who is addicted to nicotine must have his or her parents speak directly to us.
6. In the spirit of living as a community, students may not listen to recorded music on personal CD players, radios, or walkmen.
7. Students are expected to remember that they are visitors in the Eagles Mere community and to respect the property and privacy of Eagles Mere residents.
